<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>YOUR HOME &amp; COMMUNITY</th>
<th>YOUR SCHOOLS</th>
<th>YOUR POCKETS &amp; FUTURE</th>
<th>YOUR HEALTH &amp; RELATIONSHIP</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Policy Recommendations</td>
<td>Policy Recommendations</td>
<td>Policy Recommendations</td>
<td>Policy Recommendations</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. Expand Affordable Housing</td>
<td>1. Get Police out of Schools and Effective implementation of Restorative Justice Initiatives</td>
<td>1. Increase Job Access for Young People, Expand SYEP and Support Multilingual and Undocumented Students</td>
<td>1. Extend flexibility and increase funding for youth programs to meet community food needs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Housing and Cash Transfer Programs for Homeless Youth</td>
<td>2. Expand Social-Emotional Learning and Increase Social Workers in Schools and Youth Programs</td>
<td>2. Implement work-based learning opportunities</td>
<td>2. Promote safe practices for socialization and exercise</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Increase Funding for Sanitation</td>
<td>3. Teach Life Skills and Support &quot;Civics for All initiative&quot;</td>
<td>3. Provide Metrocards and other free transportation services</td>
<td>3. Manageable workload and support for remote learning due to COVID-19</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Expand Participatory Budgeting Initiatives</td>
<td></td>
<td>4. Support youth to develop and own business cooperative that meet the needs identified by young people</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. Divest and Reinvest Funds from NYPD</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Eric Adams

1. Yes - build more affordable housing units
2. Unclear - improve rent subsidies
3. Unaddressed
4. Unclear
5. No - divert police funding

Shaun Donovan

1. Yes - expand capital funding for affordable housing; Expand NYC’s Universal Access to Counsel program to provide free legal services for tenants facing legal eviction
2. Yes - improve emergency rental assistance to help people avoid homelessness; Expand creation of permanent supportive housing units
3. Yes - introduce "CleanStat" to use data to target garbage block by block; set standards for trash removal, street cleaning, and graffiti removal
4. Yes - close Rikers Island & utilize savings to invest $500 million in community-focused public safety and racial justice initiatives

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Your Home &amp; Community</th>
<th>Your Schools</th>
<th>Your Pockets &amp; Future</th>
<th>Your Health &amp; Relationship</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Policy Recommendations</td>
<td>Policy Recommendations</td>
<td>Policy Recommendations</td>
<td>Policy Recommendations</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. Yes - expand capital funding for affordable housing; Expand NYC’s Universal Access to Counsel program to provide free legal services for tenants facing legal eviction</td>
<td>1. Yes - remove police from schools, starting with schools that employ multiple School Resource Officers; Eliminating metal detectors, on-campus arrest, and handcuffing (except in extreme circumstances)</td>
<td>1. Unclear - goal of creating 500K jobs by end of term; Never mentions specific to SYEP or Multilingual and Undocument Students</td>
<td>1. Yes - plans on making everything that a New Yorker needs (public schools, parks, vaccine access, primary health-care, fresh food, and rapid transportation) within 15 minutes of their home</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Yes - improve emergency rental assistance to help people avoid homelessness; Expand creation of permanent supportive housing units</td>
<td>2. Yes - reinvest in relationship response coordinators, trained in child development, de-escalation, and understanding how trauma and life experiences impact behavior</td>
<td>2. Yes - wants to create comprehensive skills-based training program to help DOE and CUNY students acquire workplace training; establish 10,000 apprenticeship placements by 2025</td>
<td>2. Yes - wants to improve emergency response to prevent Covid-19 from becoming severe again</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Yes - close Rikers Island &amp; utilize savings to invest $500 million in community-focused public safety and racial justice initiatives</td>
<td>4. Yes - equity bond plan to provide every child $1,000-$2,000 bonds every year based on family income</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Eric Adams

1. Yes - build more affordable housing units
2. Unclear - improve rent subsidies
3. Unaddressed
4. Unclear
5. No - divert police funding

Shaun Donovan

1. Yes - expand capital funding for affordable housing; Expand NYC’s Universal Access to Counsel program to provide free legal services for tenants facing legal eviction
2. Yes - improve emergency rental assistance to help people avoid homelessness; Expand creation of permanent supportive housing units
3. Yes - introduce “CleanStat” to use data to target garbage block by block; set standards for trash removal, street cleaning, and graffiti removal
4. Yes - close Rikers Island & utilize savings to invest $500 million in community-focused public safety and racial justice initiatives

Policy Recommendations

1. Yes - expand capital funding for affordable housing; Expand NYC’s Universal Access to Counsel program to provide free legal services for tenants facing legal eviction
2. Yes - improve emergency rental assistance to help people avoid homelessness; Expand creation of permanent supportive housing units
3. Yes - introduce “CleanStat” to use data to target garbage block by block; set standards for trash removal, street cleaning, and graffiti removal
4. Yes - close Rikers Island & utilize savings to invest $500 million in community-focused public safety and racial justice initiatives

Shaun Donovan

1. Yes - expand capital funding for affordable housing; Expand NYC’s Universal Access to Counsel program to provide free legal services for tenants facing legal eviction
2. Yes - improve emergency rental assistance to help people avoid homelessness; Expand creation of permanent supportive housing units
3. Yes - introduce “CleanStat” to use data to target garbage block by block; set standards for trash removal, street cleaning, and graffiti removal
4. Yes - close Rikers Island & utilize savings to invest $500 million in community-focused public safety and racial justice initiatives

Policy Recommendations

1. Yes - expand capital funding for affordable housing; Expand NYC’s Universal Access to Counsel program to provide free legal services for tenants facing legal eviction
2. Yes - improve emergency rental assistance to help people avoid homelessness; Expand creation of permanent supportive housing units
3. Yes - introduce “CleanStat” to use data to target garbage block by block; set standards for trash removal, street cleaning, and graffiti removal
4. Yes - close Rikers Island & utilize savings to invest $500 million in community-focused public safety and racial justice initiatives
YVote Collective Candidate Assessment for New York City Mayoral Elections 2021

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Candidate</th>
<th>Key Points</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Kathryn Garcia | 1. Yes - comprehensive “Housing Heals” plan to house 300,000 people, focus on mental health; lacks restorative justice initiatives.
2. Yes - plans to implement performance-based contracting with schools, relief services. Will repurpose to comprehensive prevention services and rehousing.
3. Unaddressed - will remove barriers to accessible and quality education as well as equip teachers to understand this history and meet the needs of our rising leaders; stands in solidarity with parents as well as for students and activists who have been leading the fight.
4. Unaddressed - expands SYEP, but no mention of support for undocumented students.
5. Yes - has been feeding millions of New Yorkers since the pandemic started, tackling food insecurity, especially for public school students. |
| Ray Maguire   | 1. Yes - wants to redirect funding for de-escalation tactics and take a proactive approach to reforming police training but lacks a comprehensive plan to foster long-term accountability and a sustainable new system.
2. Yes - aims to move $130 million from DOE admin to principals for hiring staff and supplies.
3. Yes - wants to prevent foreclosure & evictions due to the pandemic and expanded affordable housing by 10%.
4. No - aims to move $130 million from DOE admin to principals for hiring staff and supplies.
5. No - plans to implement performance-based contracting with schools, relief services. Will repurpose to comprehensive prevention services and rehousing. |
| Dianne Morales | 1. Yes - will expand cooperative ownership agenda to involve desegregating, preserving, and expanding new housing.
2. Yes - supports and will appoint a DOE Chancellor for active recruiting on campuses.
3. Yes - plans to remove police from schools and to support principals for hiring staff and supplies.
4. Yes - supports and will appoint a DOE Chancellor for active recruiting on campuses.
5. Yes - will divert $3 billion of NYPD budget to create Community First Responders Dept staffed with trained personnel in mental health & wellness. |
| Y Vote Collective | 1. Yes - wants to expand SYEP and support disadvantaged students.
2. Yes - will provide Covid-19 relief to undocumented residents of NYC. She also plans to affirm human rights protection for undocumented, low wage and domestic workers. Morales also plans to prevent citywide work layoffs and have aggressive monitoring and enforcement of pay equity laws to prevent discrimination. Morales also plans to create pathways for college and career readiness.
3. Yes - has been feeding millions of New Yorkers since the pandemic started, tackling food insecurity, especially for public school students. |
YVote Collective Candidate Assessment for New York City Mayoral Elections 2021

Scott Stringer

1. Yes - wants to preserve existing affordable housing as well as convert vacant hotels and commercial spaces into shelters and supportive housing; wants to invest in NYCHA and fight homelessness with housing and support.
2. Unclear - wants to set aside 15% of all city-funded units to house the formerly homeless in order to reduce the shelter population.
3. Unaddressed
4. Unclear - does support investing in programs and initiatives from housing and education to overdose prevention and employment programs.
5. Yes - has adopted the goals of the "defund the police" movement and wants to significantly cut the police budget and reinvest in communities and programs.

Maya Wiley

1. Yes - Rent protection; fight against gentrification and protecting people of color; and expand and subsidize low cost housing.
2. Yes - End evictions and eradicate homelessness.
3. Yes - Wants to improve public sanitation through $10B Capital Spending Plan.
4. Unaddressed
5. Yes - Replace NYPD with mental health professionals, a social worker, or a mediator for non-threatening situations.

1. Yes - wants to equip students with resources for success, including making CUNY community colleges free for all, organizing paid internships for all CUNY graduating seniors, and expanding bridge programs.
2. Yes - plans on organizing paid internships for all CUNY graduating seniors to help them bridge the gap between college and career; plans to pilot universal paid internships; wants to increase career exploration and youth employment opportunities including by offering universal SYEP.
3. Yes - wants to distribute MetroCards to low-income New Yorkers and has a 17-point plan to reform the transportation system.
4. Unclear - to prepare New Yorkers for the jobs of tomorrow by strengthening partnerships with private industry to upskill New Yorkers but unclear how.

1. Yes - plans to invest in nutrition programs to combat obesity and metabolic diseases with specific, sustained health investments to close gaps in care in communities with disproportionate rates of disease and low life expectancy.
2. Unclear - plans to build out a world class public health system including creating a Chief Health Officer to align the public health vision of the City but doesn’t specifically emphasize the need to exercise and help New Yorkers stay fit.
3. Yes - Conveys he wants to establish free "high dosage tutoring" through a NYC Tutoring Corps to help get kids back on track after the pandemic.
YVote Collective Candidate Assessment for New York City Mayoral Elections 2021

ANDREW YANG

1. Yes - very supportive of affordable housing for families in shelters.
2. Unaddressed
3. Yes - has indicated disdain for the De Blasio administration’s decision to decrease funding in sanitation and committed to increasing.
4. Yes - has committed to allocating more support and funding to the City Civic Engagement commission.
5. No - initially indicated a desire to divest and reinvest funds from the NYPD, but his ideas and policies contradict such sentiments.

1. Unaddressed - has said he’ll work with school communities to hash out a vision for school safety.
2. Unclear - hasn’t indicated a stance on social-emotional learning but wants to have after school programs to aid struggling kids to be part of school and get the aid they need and to connect students through technology.
3. Yes - has indicated support for expanding civics education in schools in order to combat voter misinformation and expressed support for lowering the voting age to 16; previously indicated a commitment to life skills such as financial literacy.
4. Yes - Yang is committed to fully funding the Summer Youth Employment Program reaching 175K students over 4 years.
5. Yes - With the help of the DOE, CUNY, and more, Yang plans to create a Youth Summit, which will provide career mentors and job opportunities for high school students and credit-earning paid internships for college students.
6. Yes - has indicated intent to expand the Fair Fares program for half-priced MetroCards to low-income New Yorkers.
7. Yes - has stated he will conduct regular outreach to bring in small business employers.

1. No - Yang seems to be only focused on in-person learning and getting teachers and students back in school.
2. Unaddressed
3. No - supports measures to combat food insecurity include creation of a permanent position in the mayor’s office dedicated to food equity (the Food Czar); encouraging creation of food pantries in senior centers, community kitchens, and school gardens; renovating cafeterias in an attempt to promote healthy eating.